109TH CONGRESS 1ST SESSION

H. R. 3744

To amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to provide incentives for Americans to open their homes to fellow Americans from the Gulf Coast who were devastated by Hurricane Katrina, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

September 13, 2005

Mr. Gonzalez (for himself and Mr. Reyes) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

A BILL

- To amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to provide incentives for Americans to open their homes to fellow Americans from the Gulf Coast who were devastated by Hurricane Katrina, and for other purposes.
 - 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
 - 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
 - 3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.
 - 4 This Act may be cited as the "Katrina Aftermath Re-
 - 5 lief Effort Tax Credit Act".
 - 6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSES.
 - 7 (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds the following:

- 1 (1) Hurricane Katrina devastated the Gulf 2 Coast States of Louisiana, Mississippi, and Alabama 3 on August 29, 2005.
 - (2) An estimated 1,000,000 Americans from the Gulf Coast were forced to flee their homes as a result of Hurricane Katrina.
 - (3) Many of the displaced victims of Hurricane Katrina are currently residing in shelters across the country, including in Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Wisconsin, Arkansas, Florida, Tennessee, Georgia, and other States.
 - (4) Many of these shelters, including Kelly USA in San Antonio and the Astrodome in Houston, are only intended to serve as temporary homes for the victims of Hurricane Katrina.
 - (5) In addition to the temporary shelters, Americans have opened their homes to welcome the victims of Hurricane Katrina. Many Americans who have opened their homes also pay expenses such as food, clothing, school supplies, transportation, or personal items for the benefit of those victims of Hurricane Katrina residing with them.
 - (6) Due to the devastation of Hurricane Katrina, many Americans from the Gulf Coast cannot return to their homes for many months. As a re-

- sult, it is necessary to find intermediate-term and long-term housing for the victims of Hurricane Katrina.
 - (7) Long-term housing can be difficult to locate in certain areas. In addition, locating long-term housing can be a lengthy process.
 - (8) Intermediate-term housing is appropriate for the victims of Hurricane Katrina until long-term housing can be located.
 - (9) Opening private homes to victims of Hurricane Katrina is vital to the overall effort to find intermediate-term housing for the victims of Hurricane Katrina.
- 14 (b) Purposes.—The purposes of this Act are as follows:
- 16 (1) To provide incentives for Americans to open 17 their homes to fellow Americans from the Gulf Coast 18 who were devastated by Hurricane Katrina.
 - (2) To partially offset expenses paid by Americans who open their homes to victims of Hurricane Katrina.
 - (3) To amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to provide a tax credit to partially offset the costs of food, clothing, school supplies, transportation, or personal items paid by Americans who
